TALK BY THE HOME MARKET CLUB.

Mr. Cleveland officially asserts that the tariff compels buyers of all domestic manufacturers to pay "nearly or quite the same enhanced price which the duty adds to the cost of the goods." This in face of the fact that steel rails, with a duty of 57 per cent, and without taking into account charges for transportation and commissions, have been selling in New York within less than $10. of the price in England. The price of cotton and woolen fabrics are frequently cited by free traders in evidence of the oppressiveness of protective duties. Against this, the present secretary of state has published the report of a consul to England, Mr. L. A. Lathrop, in which it is said "cotton cloth and shawls are both cheaper in New York, Washington and San Francisco than here."

The conclusion is told that he would far rather better under the British policy than now, regardless of this unfounded comparison of average wages in the two countries:

	U. S.	Eng.
Bricklayers per week	$12.00	$8.00
Blacksmiths per week	$12.00	$8.00
Carpenters per week	$12.00	$8.00
Electricians per week	$12.00	$8.00
Millwrights per week	$12.00	$8.00
Painters per week	$12.00	$8.00
Shoemakers per week	$12.00	$8.00

Farmers are urged to join in the crusade against protection under promise of enhanced prices for the products of their industry when to existing competition among themselves is added that of the ryots of India and the serfs of Russia. In one sentence they are told that the expense of transportation is of itself a sufficient protection for the manufacturer against foreign competition, while in the next breath they are urged to believe that the addition of freight charges to farm products sold abroad will turn to the advantage of the producers. The author of the Mills bill in his speeches appeals to farmers to demand free trade, and with its advent escape in large measure the payment of taxes to which they are now subjected. On the other hand Mr. Henry George advocates the same free trade as a first step toward the success of his pet theory of centering all taxes upon land.

HYPOTHETICAL QUESTIONS.

The Northwestern Christian Advocate, of Chicago, which pretends to be a friend of practical temperance reform, but is a third party organ, in discussing the question of negro disfranchisement in the south, says: "The tactics which disfranchise a voter anywhere are a menace to voters everywhere. Whole colored constituencies are intimidated in Louisiana and elsewhere, and men, north and south, not thus disarmed seem content. Where is the congressional committee which is usually so ready when large classes are to be prosecuted? If it were asserted that the labor vote is assailed, how perspiring committee-men would rush in hot haste to vindicate the threatened rights! The old stories are reviving. If republicans are lying, why are not the lies 'nailed' like the Whig lies of old? If the negro is being intimidated in the old states, where is the committee to ascertain the fact and punish the offenders? The spectacle is not reassuring."

These are pretty questions for a paper of pretended intelligence to ask. Doesn't the Christian Advocate know that whole congressional districts in the solid south are stolen by the democratic party for the benefit of the party, and that the republicans have time and again called the attention of congress to the fact that these outrages upon the ballot box are constantly taking place under the eye and with the consent of the democratic managers? Doesn't it know that the democratic policy has been to encourage these election frauds and doesn't it also know that the Christian Advocate itself and all other assistant democratic organs like it, have howled about waving the "bloody shirt" and stirring up sectional strife, wherever republican orators and republican papers

HE CAN'T STAND IT.

Campaign Labors Too Much for Judge Thurman.

HE UNDERTAKES TO SPEAK AT NEWARK.

Forced to Stop Because of Weakness, He Trives Again, Without Success—He Roars for the Open Air, and Starts for Home Feeling Much Better.

THURMAN'S SUREST OUT SHOT.
NEWARK, N. J., Sept. 10.—The Democracy of Newark and the surrounding counties turned out to meet Judge Thurman, and filled to overflowing the Bellevue Avenue rink. The announcement that Judge Thurman would deliver an address was the reason for the large gathering. For two weeks before the coming of the judge the hall was packed with people, notwithstanding that a heavy rain-storm prevailed. Among those occupying seats on the platform were Governor George, ex-Governor Leon Abbott, Attorney-General Blackton, and others. The Old Roman was escorted from the Pennsylvania railroad depot by a delegation from the New Jersey League of Democracy. The journey from the depot to the meeting hall was a virtual triumphal procession. At 8 o'clock General J. Watt Kearney, chairman of the State Democratic League, with the New Jersey party in charge, entered the hall. When Judge Thurman appeared the applause was deafening. Hats and flags were waved and the cheering was renewed again and again. General Kearney introduced Judge Thurman, who stood with clasped hands, his historic bandana about his neck, and when quiet was restored he began his address. He said: "Last Thursday I started in the process of the largest audience I ever saw before in the city of New York. I was received with a kindness and a hearty welcome which I shall never forget, but I was suddenly overtaken with illness—such illness as would mean any body, even Hercules himself, or Sampson. I was consequently unable to speak, and I am glad to go home. The next morning some of my friends of the Republican press found me in bed, and they were in a singular manner. They loved the managers of the Democratic party for carrying out a deceitful old man who should have been huddled up in bed and the care of his doctor. When I was hospitalized into the Christian faith I was stayed Allen G. Thurman. [Cheers.] Some years afterwards my friends asked the same, setting out the 'Old Roman' (cheers) but I remained for one of the journals of the Republican party to add a new name—the Egyptian Obelisk. [Laughter.] I have seen the city of Paris and the city of New York these grand objects, and all that I can add is that I continue as long as they have lasted I will be as contented as Jack-o'-the-lantern, the enemies of the Democratic party. [Cheers.] But all this troubles me not. I would like to speak about the history of this great Democratic party founded by Thomas Jefferson and upheld by Andrew Jackson."

The judge then reviewed the history of the party and declared that it would never die while free institutions existed. He then took up the tariff issue. "What is free trade?" he asked. "It is untrammelled commerce between countries." He declared it absurd to call the Mills bill a free-trade bill. "The present tariff on all goods is 47 per cent, and the reduction under the Mills bill would amount to only 7 per cent. The importer paid this 47 per cent, but when he sold the goods he added to the whole a sale merchant he added this to the original price of his goods. The wholesaler makes the retailer pay this and the retailer in turn forces it upon the individual. At this point Judge Thurman's voice trembled and he ceased speaking. He was led from the front of the platform to a seat in the center of the stand. There was a momentary lull, during which the 2,000 people in the hall remained silent. It was evident that Judge Thurman could not go on in his present condition. He was taken to the rear of the hall and placed in a room where he was attended by a doctor. He was subsequently learned that the Old Roman had had a recurrence of his Thursday night attack. Governor Green stepped to the front of the platform in response to repeated calls, and in a short address lauded the Administration of President Cleveland and predicted that it would be heard and overwhelmingly endorsed by the people of the United States in November. He referred to President Cleveland's message to Congress, and while thus engaged the speaker was interrupted by a sudden outbreak of applause, the signal for which was the Old Roman had advanced to the speaker's table.

When the applause had subsided Mr. Thurman stated that he felt a recurrence of the ailment that had seized him Thursday and he had decided to best to leave a few minutes. He took up the subject of the surplus in the Treasury. He declared that that money belonged to the people and that there were two ways of disposing of it, first by extravagant expenditure of the Government and the second by removing the internal revenue tax. Mr. Thurman's voice again began to fail him, and thanking his audience for their attention he resumed his seat.

Governor Green resumed his remarks and explained the Mills bill at some length. At the conclusion of the Governor's speech Mr. Thurman was escorted from the hall to the depot, where he boarded the special car, and the journey to Columbus was resumed.

Attorney-General Blackton and ex-Governor Leon Abbott also delivered addresses and the meeting adjourned.

New York, Sept. 10.—Mr. Thurman left this city for Columbus on the 9:30 train yesterday morning. He was feeling well. He is expected to arrive at Columbus about 6 o'clock this morning.

ALTOONA, Pa., Sept. 10.—Judge Thurman and party passed through this city on their way to Columbus. At the depot a large crowd of people gathered and paid their respects to the grand old man. Fully 3,000 men and women were present, and one-half of that number shook hands with Mr. Thurman. He was called upon to make a speech, but he declined and said: "This is the Lord's Day; I thank you for your kindness," and then re-entered his car. He reported his health as improved and was feeling well.

A FOOLISH YOUTH.

He Quarrels with His Sweetheart, Kills Her and Commits Suicide.

MILWAUKEE, Wis., Sept. 10.—John Service shot and killed his sweetheart, Alice Fowler, and then committed suicide. The young couple had been engaged for some time and the date for their wedding had been set. Service called on Miss Fowler, and it is thought that they quarreled, for in a few minutes two pistol shots were heard and the bodies of the two young people found lying on the floor.

Refuses to Run.

At Memphis, Tenn., Sept. 10.—Judge James M. Grosz has written a letter declining the nomination for Vice-President on the ticket of the American party.

Failure in the Liquor Trade.

St. Louis, Sept. 10.—Charles Wozler, wholesale liquor dealer, has made an assignment. The liabilities are estimated at $51,000.

THE FEVER.

Jacksonville in Great Need of Experienced Nurses and Physicians—Progress of the Scourge—A Defiant Railroad Company.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Sept. 10.—The wind is cold and very unpleasant, and doubtless will prove very bad for the sick. Nurses are now arriving and one pressing need is thereby partially filled, but half a hundred more are needed. Few experienced physicians have volunteered as yet. The chances for camp, nurses, etc., will be estimated, by nearly $5,000 per week. Of the 10,000 negroes here it is estimated that three-quarters or even more of them will have to be supported. No chance of money is offered and they refuse to move. Of the 4,000 whites a large proportion can support themselves, but it will be seen from these figures what a load Jacksonville has to bear.

Three new cases of fever were reported at Tampa Saturday.

The official bulletin for the twenty-four hours ending at 6 p. m. Saturday is as follows: New cases, 43; deaths, 9; total number of cases to date, 553; total number of deaths to date, 73.

The Relief Committee has received a telegram from President Cleveland authorizing his officers to draw the money for the relief of the fever sufferers. The President says: "Assure the people of Jacksonville that while in their dire extremity they may be helped to a great extent by the Government, more than can be effected within the limitations of the law, there will be no hesitation in doing all that is permitted, and the people of the country will gladly respond to the call of their distressed fellow-countrymen for relief."

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10.—Senator-General Hamilton has been informed that the officials of the Florida Railway & Navigation Company refuse to hold their trains at Live Oak, a vital point, longer than what they consider a reasonable time for train inspection, an average of half a minute for each passenger aboard. Mr. Hamilton replied to the dispatch as follows: "Inform the railroad officials that the United States is ordering the quarantine inspection, and the railroad companies must give time for its performance. If they do not comply with your request, the United States will take the law into its own hands and stop the trains if they disregard the above notice, and your authority as to force is unlimited. If in case of actual need, the United States will be allowed to issue orders to an officer of the United States while in the performance of his duty."

Miss Clara Barton has received a dispatch from President Mitchell, of the County Board of Health, asking her to establish Red Cross headquarters at Jacksonville. The necessary orders have been given to Red Cross organizations throughout the country.

READY FOR THE VETERANS.

Indications at Columbus That the Coming Encampment of the Grand Army Boys Will Surpass All Previous Gatherings.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 10.—The capital of the Buckeye State is all ablaze, and the grand encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic is one never before looked upon in Columbus. Though the twenty-first National Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic does not practically begin until Tuesday, the city is already filled with the veterans. The first delegations arriving Saturday have been followed hourly by the soldier boys of all their wives, families and friends. The high street for the distance of seven miles is literally covered with flags, bunting and banners inscribed with words of greeting and welcome. The business houses in the main parts show some master work in the decorations and are as beautiful as well as novel. A number of arches brilliantly lighted by the electric and gas lights span the streets, all giving the city a most attractive appearance.

HARRISON'S LETTER.

It Will Be Out Tuesday Morning—A Brief, Pointed Document.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Sept. 10.—General Harrison's letter of acceptance will be given to the public in the newspapers of Tuesday morning if he does not find after reading President Cleveland's letter, that there is more to be made of it than is authoritatively understood. That the tariff, the civil service and election methods in the South will be the subjects commented upon at greatest length, while the Canadian troubles will be given special attention. In general, the Nationalist, of course, present the line and spirit of his comments, but he has endeavored to make his expression of views pointed and brief.

David Wants the Liberals to Show Their Hands.

DURHAM, Sept. 10.—Michael Davitt, in a speech at Knockree, said that the cry of "Gloria Gloriola in Excelsis," had gone too far. While the Liberals remained headless of the atrocities attending evictions there could be placed no faith in the boasted alliance of the Liberals and Nationalists, which had proved to be a handicap instead of a shield. Unless the Liberals did something to insure confidence the Irish would be compelled to adopt unconstitutional methods in dealing with the licensed agents of cruelty. They must rally their forces instantly throughout the world and defend their homes.

Big Fire at San Francisco.

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 10.—Fire broke out in the south and door factory of Day, Horner & Co., on Main street, and before it could be controlled had destroyed nearly three blocks of buildings, causing a loss estimated at $1,000,000, one life was lost, and throwing 2,000 men out of work.

A WARNING.

The mode of death's approach are so various, and its statistics show conclusively that more persons die from diseases of the Throat and Lungs than any other. It is probable that everyone, without exception, has at some time been afflicted with the mercurial Germs into the system and where these germs fall upon suitable soil they start into life and develop, at first slowly and then more rapidly, until the end of the process is shown by a slight tingling sensation in the throat, and if not allowed to continue their ravages they extend to the lungs producing Consumption and to the head, causing Eczema. If this is the case of your throat, and if you do not proceed will in time cause death. At this onset you must act with promptness; allowing a cold to go without attention is dangerous and may cause your life. If you are not cured in a few days, get wrong with your Throat, Lungs or Nostrils, obtain a bottle of Boschee's German Syrup. It will give you immediate

REPUBLICAN DAY.

Grand Rally of the Republicans at the County Fair on Wednesday, Sept. 12th.

Eloquent Speakers—Grand Barbecue—Spontaneous Music—The Old Veteran Voters.

The grand republican rally at the Rock county fair on Wednesday—Wednesday, September 12th, promises to be one of the largest and most enthusiastic political gatherings that ever assembled in Rock county. Hon. W. E. Mason of Illinois, and Hon. W. D. Hoard, the republican candidate for governor, will be present and address the people. The County Committee are making an effort to secure ex-Secretary of War Holt, Lincoln, and Senator Spooner, and they will be present if it is possible.

Numerous bands of music will be present, including the martial band and legion. Center will contribute a cavalry company, and there will be many unique attractions in the procession. The ox has been purchased, and the barbecue will not be the least of the attractions on this great day.

There will be a reunion of the veterans of 1840, over three hundred of whom now reside in Rock county. It is intended to get those old political warriors together on that day, around the old log cabin, and some of the heroes will have something of interest to say.

The County Committee has selected the following gentlemen to act as the reception committee—Hon. I. C. Sloan, Surgeon General Henry Palmer, Hon. James Sutherland, R. T. Pender, Col. W. B. Britton, Major S. C. Cobb, Hon. A. A. Jackson, Hon. A. P. Lovejoy, Hon. Alex. Graham, Stanley B. Smith.

Captain M. A. Newman has been appointed chief marshal, with power to appoint aids.

It is suggested that business men decorate their places on that day with bunting, etc., and make it a gala day for the city.

Republicans are invited to turn out en masse on this occasion, and start the campaign booming.

BRIEFLETS.

—Fair week.

—Baptism to-morrow night.

—Baptismal services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Dodge last evening.

—Lou, M. Stevens, of Rockford, visited old friends in Jansville yesterday.

—Archie Reid's show windows are bright in anticipation of fair week, and are attracting much attention.

—Miss Emma Woodruff, of Rockford, is the guest of Miss Eva Nash, of the first ward.

—The public schools will re-open for the fall term on Monday next—September 17th.

—Two patients were discharged from the city hospital on Saturday; and one new patient was received.

—There is a difference between a good deacon and a bad boy: one passes the assessor and the other sasses the passer.

—Richardson, Whitton & Ry's store is handsomely decorated with the national colors in honor of fair week.

—Several Jansville rangers are now confined in the county jail, and will probably remain there until after the fair.

—Jansville Lodge No. 55, F. and A. M., assemble in regular semi-monthly communication this evening at Masonic hall.

—The Gas Company is laying an extension of main pipe on Milton avenue, from Glen street, north to St. Mary's avenue.

—J. B. McLean is adding a handsomely appointed janitor counter to his Milwaukee street cigar store and news stand.

—Crystal Temple of Honor No. 32 assemble in regular weekly session this evening—lodge room in the Judd block, North Main street.

—Martin Gagen was given an additional sixty days sentence to-day by Judge Patterson for smashing into scrap-iron the stove at the jail.

—Rock Legion, Select Knights, A. O. U. W., assemble in regular semi-monthly meeting this evening—lodge room in the Smith block, East Milwaukee street.

—Captain Elmy Norcross is looking towards an enlargement of his electric light plant. More lights are wanted than can be supplied with the machinery now in use.

—W. H. Sargent Woman's Relief Corps No. 21, will assemble at G. A. R. hall at 2:30 o'clock to-morrow (Tuesday) afternoon—regular semi-monthly meeting.

—The general topic of conversation on the streets is the coming engagement of the great Keene in his famous production of Richard III at Myers New Opera house to-morrow night.

—The Beloit Guards and the Jansville Light Infantry have arranged for a target shoot to take place in this city on September 13, Friday—the match will be in the afternoon on the range in the third ward.

—It now appears that young McLaughlin, who turned in the false alarm Friday was in town on his honeymoon. He probably realizes by this time that the "joyous wedding bells" are expensive things to have around.

—Twenty-five Italian laborers spent Sunday on the platform of the Northwestern passenger depot. They came from Chicago Saturday night, and to-day were put at work ballasting the Northwestern road between this city and Milton.

—The stand work and lithograph announcing the coming of the famous tragedian, are the handiwork that have every grace of the walls and windows of the city. The lithographs are in great demand and are nice enough to frame.

—Some twenty-five or thirty Italian railway graders camped on the depot platforms on Saturday night and remained until last evening. They were a motley gang, and to look at them was evidence enough to convince anyone that our immigration laws needed amendments.

—Fred and Charley Murphy and Ben Dixon broke into Christmas's grocery last night about eight o'clock and made away with a handful of small change besides some candy and cigars. Entrance was gained through a broken window. Fred Murphy has been arrested but the others are still at large.

—Judge Sale has held that the will offered by the sons of late James Gaultie was cancelled. By the will the property was left to Mrs. Gaultie and the two sons. Settling it aside gives a portion of the property to Mr. Gaultie's four daughters. Sylvester Morgan has been appointed administrator of the estate.

—Cards have been received announcing the wedding of Mr. Frederick B. Eldred of this city and Mrs. Mary E. Floyd, of Grand Rapids, Michigan. The wedding took place on Tuesday evening of last week, the Rev. A. M. Merriam officiating. Mr. and Mrs. Eldred will be at home to their friends after October 1st.

—An extra large corps of auxiliaries has been engaged for the grand production of Richard III. This will be the most notable engagement that the famous tragedian, Thos. W. Keene, has ever played in this city. He has never before brought such a strong company to this city as the one that will appear with him at Myers New Opera house to-morrow night.

—We are now opened and ready for business. The demands of the people at last arrived. We were here to remain with you permanently. Being connected with a large wholesale clothing house, we will positively retail all goods at wholesale prices. Money will be cheerfully refunded if goods do not suit. Milwaukee Clothing Company under Myers house.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Munger mourn the death of their baby boy six weeks old, which died on Saturday at eight o'clock this morning. Whooping cough was the cause of death. The funeral will be held at the house on South Second street at two o'clock to-morrow afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Munger will share the sympathy of many friends in their bereavement.

—From the present indications the "standing room only" sign will have to be brought into use at Myers New Opera house to-morrow night when the doors of that popular theatre opens for the grand performance of Richard III. With the famous tragedian "Thos. W. Keene," in the leading role, it is needless to say that those who want seats for this performance will secure them to night before the box office closes.

—Complaints of a sand-bagging case near the Five Points were made known to Marshal Hogan yesterday. Early in the morning Tyler Marsh found an old man, whose name was unknown, lying beside the Milwaukee & St. Paul track just beyond the round house. He claimed to have been assaulted and robbed while under the influence of liquor. Saturday night. As no bruises were found on his person, and as all the money he had about him when last seen on Saturday was seventy-five cents the officers look upon the story with doubt.

—Mr. A. T. Wilkins, late of Oconomowoc, has leased a store on East Milwaukee street, in the Myers house block, and is having it fitted up for a wall paper and decorative art store. Mr. Wilkins is a practical paper hanger, and for many years has given special attention to paper hanging and decorative art. He will put in a complete stock of goods, which will be open for inspection about September 15th. His stock of wall paper is bought of manufacturers direct, and his personal attention will be given to decorating houses and public buildings. Wait and examine his goods before buying. The house will make a specialty of window shades, artists' materials, picture frames, etc.

—Only a few days ago we recorded the sudden death of Charles A. Fredendall. Last Sunday afternoon Evelyn, the little two year old daughter, passed over to the other shore after four weeks' illness. Mrs. Fredendall is now left alone in her great sorrow, and our hearts go out in sympathy to her. In this world, scarred all over by newly made graves, how naturally our eyes are turned towards him who "brought life and immortality to light," and how we all need the consolation which only He can give.—Laramie (Wyoming) Sentinel. Deceased was a granddaughter of Mr. J. C. Fredendall, of this city.

—Speaking about our display fountains, the Beloit Free Press says:—"The Free Press may have possibly said something about Jansville and Jansville people in the dim and distant past. It did not do so, probably it was due to the fact that its editor had, after shaking the dust of that city off his feet, returned to Beloit via the 'wearing train.' But whether it has or not said some things, it now deserves to be placed prominently on record as complimenting the citizens of Thoroughgood in the warmest manner for their enterprise in causing the erection of the beautiful fountain which will soon adorn the court house square and the uniquely triangular on the west side.

—"There is no place like home." Such is the opinion of Dr. J. F. Pender, son of President R. T. Pender, of the Rock County Agricultural Society. Dr. Pender has returned to Jansville to stay, and has opened an office with Dr. O. G. Bennett, dentist, in the Jansville block, over the Merchants' and Mechanics' bank, on West Milwaukee street. After spending several years as a student in the office of Dr. Henry Palmer, Dr. Pender attended the Chicago Medical College, graduating from that institution some three or four years ago; he was hospital surgeon at Mercy Hospital, Chicago, for one year, and assistant surgeon at the Northern Hospital for the Insane at Winnebago, this state, for two years. He is a young man of exceptionally fine abilities, has had a varied and successful experience in his practice, and his many friends in this locality will greet his return with satisfaction and pleasure, and wish him continued success in the practice of his profession.

—Night work in the upper cotton mill will be resumed Monday, Sept. 10. All operators wishing employment will report at once to Chester Bailey, Superintendent.

—The following letter from Treasurer O'Reilly, of the National League explains itself:

DEAR Sir: Your welcome letter of the 6th with New York Exchange for money $2,000 dollars is at hand and duly credited to the Anti-Exclusion Fund from Jansville Branch of the League. With best wishes, I remain,

Very faithfully yours,

GEORGE O'REILLY, Treasurer.

—I have been afflicted with hay fever from early in August until frost. My eyes would run a stream of water and I sneezed continually. I was advised to use the Ely's Cream Balm. It has worked like a charm and I can say I am entirely cured.—Mrs. Emeline Johnson, Chester, Conn.

—Have been for several years a sufferer from hay fever and several colds. I have found nothing that can compare with Ely's Cream Balm. I would not be without it for any consideration. It is simply wonderful in its effect upon the nasal organs.—B. A. Latt, Wilmington, N. C.

—NOTICE.

THE AIR WAS FULL OF IT.

Democracy in the Very Breezes, at the Convention on Saturday.

The Nominations of the Rock County Democrats Completed.

It was late before the democratic county convention finally adjourned.

In the first place considerable time was spent over the district attorney ship.

L. M. Hyzer was nominated but declined promptly. The convention then nominated Mr. Hyzer over again instructing the county committee to receive no nomination.

The list of the day was made by Chairman Buckley. When nominations for sheriff were coming in, an appeal was made for Andrew Jensen on the ground that Mr. Jensen would draw the Norwegian vote.

To this some of the delegates took exception insisting that the Norwegian vote was being catered to while the straight democrats were neglected.

"I would like to ask," shouted Delegate Paul Mangor, indignantly, "if this is a democratic convention."

Chairman Buckley smiled the sea breezes for a moment, critically and deliberately.

"Judging from the physiognomy of the delegates and from the smell," he responded, "I should say that it is."

When the business of the county delegates was finished, those in the group divided themselves off into three groups and held conversations for the three assembly districts.

First District.

K. N. Gundvard, of Oxfordville, was nominated for member of assembly.

Members, D. B. Bellou, of Aron, and Dennis Ryan, of Footville, were elected as delegates to the convention at Racine.

On motion adjourned.

Second District.

This district did not place a candidate for the assembly in nomination, deferring the nomination until a later day.

Members, Joseph B. Doe, Jr., of Jansville, and John Decker, of the town of Harmony, were elected as delegates to the First District congressional convention to be held in Racine.

The following district committee was appointed: M. J. Dougherty, Jansville; John Campbell, Harmony; and P. F. McGee, of the town of Jansville.

Third District.

John Harvey, of Johnstown, was nominated for assemblyman.

Members, Thomas Anton, of Edgerton; and E. C. Carpenter, of Turtle, were elected as delegates to the congressional convention to be held at Racine.

CAUGHT A TARTAN.

A Runaway Match That Caused Much Amusement.

The runaway match between Bert Clarke and August Hilker, at the fair grounds, was a surprise party. Quite a number of local sporting men who took part, wished afterwards that they hadn't.

Several nights ago they were talking about runners and grew quite enthusiastic.

"I've got twenty dollars," remarked Thomas Mahon, "that says Bert Clarke can out-run anybody in this part of the country."

"I'll go you one on that," said Joe Field. "I've got a green, country boy down here that can run all about Bert."

The argument was promptly put up, and the race arranged.

When Clarke's opponent stepped out on the track it was evident that his "greenness" didn't bother him much. He took his place at the post with an air decidedly professional. But it was when the word was given that he let himself out. There was certainly nothing confidential about the way he skinned over the ground. He went with a stride that showed training and experience. He finished well in the lead and Clarke's backers, although protesting that Field had put in a professional, paid their bets and departed. Hilker is said to have been trained at Kille's place in Beloit, and at the close of the race an effort was made to match him against a Racine runner for five hundred dollars a side. No definite arrangements for this match have yet been made.
